

RATKO MLADIĆ - Colonel General, Commander of the Main Staff of the Army of Republika Srpska, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Indictment

Two counts of Genocide

- Genocide against a part of the Bosniak and/or Bosnian Croat national ethnical and or religious groups with the object of permanently removing Bosniaks and Bosnian Croats from the territories of Bosnia and Herzegovina claimed as Bosnian Serb territory.
- Genocide against Bosniaks in Srebrenica by killing the men and boys of Srebrenica and forcibly removing the women, young children and some elderly.

Five counts of crimes against humanity

- Persecutions as a crime against humanity including murder, torture, beatings and rape against Bosniaks and Bosnian Croats.
- Extermination and murder of Bosniaks and Bosnian Croats in the municipalities.
- Murder of Bosniaks in Srebrenica.
- Murder of civilians in Sarajevo.
- Forcible deportation of Bosniaks, Bosnian Croats or other non-Serbs from the municipalities.

Four counts of violation of the law of war

- Forcible deportation of Bosniaks, Bosnian Croats or other non-Serbs from Srebrenica.
- Terror and unlawful attacks against civilians.
- Sniping and shelling against civilians in Sarajevo.
- Hostage-taking of United Nations military observers and peacekeepers.